

Attention all students:

Please bring your charged chromebook to your APP class on Monday, February 12th, to complete a health check on your device.

If you will be absent on February 12th, please come to Brighton's library to work with library staff on completing the health check.

Thank you!